

The 2014 Pilot Project of Certifying Universities' Self Evaluation Results

This project is to certify the self evaluation results done by the universities which were chosen by the Ministry of Education. This year we have 3 applicants which are National Chengchi university, Chang Gung university and Yuan Ze University. The certification results of these three universities are certified. The certified periods of these three universities are the same with the second cycle program evaluation.