

The Project of Academic Association of Humanities and Social Sciences establish the Discipline Accreditation Council

In order to develop specialization and diversification of Higher Education Evaluation in Taiwan, Higher Education Evaluation and Accreditation Council of Taiwan (HEEACT) plans to assist China Education Society and Taiwanese Psychological Association establish the Discipline Accreditation Council. The findings of this project as follows: 1. The characteristics of discipline and academic association as the main factor affecting the project progress. 2. China Education Society and Taiwanese Psychological Association have different orientation of unsolved problems. 3. HEEACT needs to modify the relate accreditation regulations in response to establish Education and Psychological 3 Year No. Item Remarks Accreditation Councils.