

An Analysis of Worldwide Quality Assurance Agencies Organizational Structures

In order to understand the proper organization structure of Higher Education Evaluation and Accreditation Council of Taiwan (HEEACT), this study uses literature review to explore 14 organization structures of the higher education evaluation organizations around the world. According to the findings, the organization structure of HEEACT is needed to change and must expands its goals and development objectives to make itself more reliable to the Ministry of Education and universities.