

Diversification of Higher Education Evaluation Project

This study is trying to collect and integrate the higher education institution information from the Statistics department of MOE, higher education institution information database built by MOE ,universities' public information and HEEACT evaluation results to see the evaluation influences, to analyze the educational effectiveness and to generate the useful information for higher education development.