財團法人高等教育評鑑中心基金會
Higher Education Evaluation and Accreditation Council of Taiwan

Enforcement Rules for the Collection of Self-Accreditation Recognition Fees

Approved at the 325th Executive Meeting on October 31, 2017
Revisions approved at the 330th Executive Meeting on April 13, 2018
Revisions approved at the 338th Executive Meeting on January 3, 2019
Revisions approved at the 346th Executive Meeting on November 5, 2019
Revisions approved at the 358th Executive Meeting on March 3, 2021
Revisions approved at the 373rd Executive Meeting on July 6, 2022
Revisions approved at the 390th Executive Meeting on November 16, 2023

Article 1

The Enforcement Rules were formulated in accordance with Article 11 of Regulations Governing the Recognition of Self-Accreditation.

Article 2

Recognition fees are classified into the following seven categories:

1. Fees for applying for Recognition of Self-Accreditation: Such fees will be incurred from the administrative procedures, initial document reviews, and other related procedures conducted when processing the application. Fees for applying for recognition of self-accreditation shall be charged on an institution basis and tiered according to the number of departments and graduate institutes applying;
2. Review Fees for Recognition of Self-Accreditation Mechanism and Recognition of Self-Accreditation Results: Such fees will be charged on a department or graduate institute basis and incurred from the administrative procedures, document reviews, presentation reviews, and other related procedures conducted during the review for recognition of self-accreditation mechanisms and recognition of self-accreditation results;
3. Review Fees for Re-Recognition of Self-Accreditation Mechanisms: Related fees will be incurred when a higher education institution received the result of Recognition Denied restarting the procedures for the review of its recognition of self-accreditation mechanisms;
4. Review Fees for Postponing the Recognition of Self-Accreditation Results: Related fees will be incurred when a department or graduate institute offers a new degree program or other new programs and applies for review for recognition of self-accreditation results;
5. Review Fees for Follow-up Recognition of Self-Accreditation Results: Related fees will be incurred for executing the procedures when a department or graduate institute applies for the follow-up recognition of self-accreditation results;

6. Appeal Hearing Fee: Covers the review of an appeal as well as administrative costs and related expenses , in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Review of Appeals against Results of Higher Education Accreditation and Other Quality Assurance Related Thereto;
7. Fees for Reissuance of a Certificate: A department or a graduate institute t within its validity period of recognition may apply for reissuance of the certificate, the related administrative fees shall be charged in accordance with the Operating Rules for Correction and Reissuance of Accreditation Certificate.

Article 3

All recognition of self-accreditation fees must be paid in New Taiwan Dollars. Remittance or transfer fees must be paid by the institution/program applying. A breakdown of fee payments is provided in the table below.

Article 4

Recognition of self-accreditation Fees must be paid by the deadline set by the Council. Failure to pay by the deadline, without a valid reason provided, will incur an overdue charge. The overdue charge is calculated as one percent of the fee for every seven working days past the deadline.

Article 5

Applicants for recognition of self-accreditation must select one of the payment options below:

1. Check: the check must be made out to the Higher Education Evaluation and Accreditation Council of Taiwan; and;
2. Remittance: Beneficiary bank: Chang Hwa Bank; account number: 5130-01-002957-00; the name of beneficiary: Higher Education Evaluation and Accreditation Council of Taiwan.

Article 6

These Enforcement Rules shall take effect upon approval at the Executive Meeting of the Council.